ORDER TO FILE PLAINTIFF'S ADDRESS UNDER SEAL

The Court is in receipt of the Notice of Passing filed by Defendant West Texas A&M, which informs the Court that counsel for Plaintiff—David C. Holmes—has passed away. (ECF 24). Based on the information before the Court, Mr. Holmes was a solo practitioner with little to no support staff.

As a result, the undersigned is concerned that Plaintiff will probably not be informed or become aware of Mr. Holmes' death in a timely manner. Accordingly, to put the Plaintiff on notice that his attorney has passed away, the Court ORDERS Defendant to file Plaintiff's last known address under seal on or before Friday, February 16, 2024.¹

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ENTERED February 2, 2024.

LEE ANN RENO
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

¹ Defendant should have records of Mr. Crawford's address from his term of employment for West Texas A&M University; alternatively, Defendant may have a more current address that has come out during this litigation. Regardless, the Court asks for Defendant's best assistance in putting Plaintiff on notice of this unfortunate circumstance.
